K & K Fence Company Select Forms New Partnership with Laborers Union

Hoosier Job Creation and New Markets are Top Priorities

Indianapolis, April 19, 2011: A locally-owned contractor, K & K Fence Company Select, today announced they have formed an exciting new partnership with the Indiana Laborers Union as part of their strategic plan to create Hoosier jobs and move into new markets in the Indiana construction landscape.

K & K co-owner Fred Poe said of the new partnership, “K & K Select is truly excited about the new opportunities this presents for us to work with large union contractors. We are a company focused on providing a quality product and outstanding customer service.” K & K provides quality temporary and permanent fencing needs for industrial and commercial customers as well specialized fencing for sports facilities, schools, interiors, and security applications.

Poe added, “We see the partnership with the Laborers Union as a key piece of our long-term plan for growth while positioning K & K for expansion into new markets. We welcome the possibilities this opens up for us.”

Ward Daniels, Business Manager for Laborers Local 120, commented on the new partnership, “K & K is an excellent company. This is a win-win for everyone – the company, the workers, the union, and our large union contractors. We look forward to an excellent working relationship.”
