SAMCO Workers Vote Overwhelmingly to Join Laborers Union!

After 10 Week Campaign SAMCO Workers are Now Union

Indianapolis, March 29, 2010: After an exhaustive ten week union organizing campaign, SAMCO workers voted overwhelmingly on Friday, March 26 to join the Laborers Union. The NLRB election results showed that 76% of the votes cast were in favor of joining the Union.

SAMCO, an acronym for Sanitary Management & Engineering Company, Inc., is a Fishers-based company that works primarily in the areas of operations, management and engineering solutions for water, wastewater and storm water utilities. SAMCO has been providing a full range of utility services to municipalities and private utilities since 1989.
