Straight Line Cutting Forms Dynamic New Partnership with Indiana Laborers Union Growth-Oriented Company Focuses on Midwest Market

Indianapolis, October 5, 2015: Straight Line Cutting, Inc. today announced they have formed an exciting new partnership with the Indiana Laborers union. Straight Line's owner, "Big Matt" Utterback, has over 23 years of proven experience providing precision cutting and drilling services throughout Indiana and the Midwest.

Soon to be a DBE certified contractor, Straight Line Cutting works throughout the Midwest performing high-quality slab sawing and core drilling services.

"Big Matt" said of the new partnership, "Straight Line is excited about this partnership. We believe the Laborers Union is the perfect partner for our business model and our market. We are excited about the opportunities this presents for us to work with other union contractors."

Ward Daniels, Business Manager of Laborers, Local 120 commented on the new partnership, "Straight Line Cutting is a great company with a truly experienced owner. Most people in the Indiana construction industry know "Big Matt" and are well aware of his long history of quality workmanship. We look forward to a long and successful partnership with Straight Line Cutting."

Straight Line Cutting corporate headquarters is located at: P.O. Box 434, Brownsburg, Indiana 46112. For more information contact Matt Utterback at: 317-565-9307 or via email at: straightlinecutting@hotmail.com.
